Join a Community Where Everyone Knows Your Name

Welcome to ClarkLindsey, a community named after our founders, sisters Ethel Clark and Maud Lindsey. These University of Illinois alumni imagined a welcoming, not-for-profit Life Plan Community with a culture centered around purposeful living. From 1978 to today, we've continued their mission. Partnerships with the University of Illinois, a multitude of life-enriching programs, and strong community engagement are just a few of the ways we're redefining aging every day. When you live in a community where age has no limits, imagine the possibilities.

Carefree independent living today.
Peace of mind for the future. As the only complete Life Plan Community in the area, ClarkLindsey gives you both.

Discover freedom from home upkeep in an upscale apartment or villa, nestled on 27 acres of beautiful landscaped grounds. Step outside your door to our walking paths and connect to the picturesque prairies of Meadowbrook Park.

Enjoy the confidence of knowing that higher levels of care are here if ever needed. Person-centered assisted living and memory care programs will be available in our modern expansion. Skilled nursing care and inpatient and outpatient rehab can be found in our top-ranked Meadowood Health Center. No matter what level of care you choose, you'll have access to the fulfilling lifestyle on our stunning campus. Everything you want to share, create or experience is here for you at ClarkLindsey.
